

OUR RUSSIAN GUESTS.

Naval Officers of the Czar Visit the City Hall.

After the Reception They Take a Cruise Around the Harbor.

A Trip to Manhattan Scheduled for This Evening.

Russia's flag floated from the City Hall staff this morning in honor of the officers of the Russian navy, who are the guests of the city today.

In accordance with the programme prepared by the committee on arrangements, the committee of 100 the sub-committee on arrangements went to the foot of West Third Street at 10:30 o'clock to receive Admiral Kuznetsov and his officers.

Admiral Kuznetsov, Chairman, and other members of the committee on arrangements, were waiting with twenty carriages to convey the guests to the City Hall, where the officers were given an informal reception by Mayor Gilroy.

A large crowd assembled early on the dock to witness the landing of the Russians, who looked gorgeous in their gold-laced uniforms. Sergt. Woods and Roundman Powers and ten men from the West Third Street police station and Roundman Kemp and ten men from the Port of New York station were on hand to keep the gangway clear.

There were several hundred people on the dock, including the Russian officers, all of whom were escorted to the City Hall by the committee on arrangements.

Admiral Kuznetsov, with Capt. Zelenov, of the Donkoff, led in the first carriage, followed by the other officers. The Russian officers reached the City Hall early at 12 o'clock.

The party entered the governor's room, where Mayor Gilroy received them. A cordial banqueting marked the meeting of the Admiral and the Mayor, after which the officers advanced to their rooms and were presented to the Mayor. Nearly all the committee of 100 the sub-committee on arrangements, including Mayor Gilroy, were present.

Admiral Kuznetsov, in accepting the hospitality, thanked the Mayor for his kind sentiments. The officers then spent some time in looking at the pictures of the former Mayor, and afterwards returned to their rooms and were driven to pier A for a sail down the bay.

There the steamship Aurora was waiting to take the guests on their cruise. A cordial banqueting marked the meeting of the Admiral and the Mayor, after which the officers advanced to their rooms and were presented to the Mayor. Nearly all the committee of 100 the sub-committee on arrangements, including Mayor Gilroy, were present.

The party will reach Bay Ridge about 6 o'clock. The party will then disembark and take a special train of Pullman cars for the Oriental Hotel, Manhattan Beach.

Admiral Kuznetsov and his officers will be accompanied by a large number of Russian sailors. The party will be accompanied by a large number of Russian sailors.

SUNDAY TO BE "HEROES" DAY.

Families of Dead Firemen to Receive the World's Fair Receipts.

Health Officers Want the Cold Storage Rates Quickly Removed.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Next Sunday will be set aside as "Heroes' Day" at the World's Fair, and all the proceeds of the admissions to the grounds will be devoted to the relief of the families of those firemen who died while doing their duty.

The total number of dead, including those who died in the hospital, as well as those who perished in the flames, now reaches 12, with three or four persons still unaccounted for.

The Special Council Committee on Fire Protection at the Fair commenced its work today, which will be finished tomorrow. Accompanied by Marshal Murphy, the committee visited the roof of the Manufacturers' Building and inspected the elevators. Building Inspector Tolson recommended that a spacious staircase of light iron be placed on the platform connecting with the spiral stairways.

If the ruins are not cleared away this week, the matter in hand, as the committee has decided, will be to clear the grounds on Henry Island avenue.

The committee also visited the grounds of the Manufacturers' Building, where at last stirred up the Department of Works, and Chief Burnham said that the debris will be reached and removed by tonight.

EMMA VADERS AGAIN VIOLENT.

Last Year She Was Attacked While Playing with Joe Jefferson.

This Time She Becomes Mildly Demented from Overstudy.

Very little surprise was expressed in theatrical circles today over the report from Atlantic City that Miss Emma Vaders, the actress, had again become insane, as it is scarcely a year since she was similarly and violently attacked while playing with Joe Jefferson in "Tip Van Winkle."

According to an Atlantic City dispatch, Miss Vaders' whimsy has been sleeping at the Florida House there, became mildly insane yesterday morning as a result of overstudy.

She expected to go out with Thomas W. Keene Aug. 28, and had studied hard for the occasion. She had been in her weakened condition, but Sunday morning she went out for a short walk, but fell and was assisted home by a policeman.

Yesterday morning she became violent until a policeman was called in. On being notified, her father went on to Philadelphia, and took her to the Duffington cottage.

Her father's sister, Henrietta, said last night that she did not believe her sister was mentally unbalanced, but was simply suffering from hysteria brought on by exposure to the sun and too much bathing. Miss Vaders said that she had been studying for a long time, and had been in her weakened condition, but Sunday morning she went out for a short walk, but fell and was assisted home by a policeman.

EAST SIDE GANGS RAIDED.

Police Aroused by Complaints of Hebrew Citizens.

Members of "Bawdoo," "Blazers" and "Sweeney's" Fined.

The complaints of Hebrew citizens of the east side seem to have aroused the police to a sense of duty to suppress the gangs that make night hideous and life miserable for peaceable residents, and as a result Knicker Market Court was crowded this morning with the friends and sympathizers of the members of the gangs arrested.

The first complainant was Policeman Hogan, of the Madison street station, who had in charge three of the "Bawdoo" gang, named William Kelly, seventeen years old, of 206 Madison street; Joseph Williams, nineteen years old, of 134 Cherry street, and John Powers, of 134 Cherry street. They were charged with being disorderly and fined $2 each by Justice Ryan, who the cause that six months on the island would be their sentence if arrested again.

Policeman J. Oppenheimer, of the Union Market squad, had three of the Willett street gang, known as the "Blazers." They were John Hoffman, seventeen years old, of 214 Madison street; Andrew Hink, fourteen years old, of 109 Willett street, and Bernard Hink, sixteen years old, of 25 Avenue D. They also paid $2 fine, and were told by Justice Ryan that the same punishment awaited them as he had promised their predecessors if again brought before him.

The next batch of four men and two women was the result of a raid on the yard in the rear of 141 Cherry street, where over a dozen of the members of "Sweeney's" gang, with their "lad-fifers" were holding high carnival last night.

The arrival of the police caused a stampede, and all escaped over fences except Daniel Cronin, twenty years, of 45 Cherry street, John O'Brien, twenty years, of 45 Cherry street, Joseph Smith, twenty years, of 45 Cherry street, and John O'Brien, twenty years, of 45 Cherry street. They were charged with being disorderly and fined $2 each by Justice Ryan, who the cause that six months on the island would be their sentence if arrested again.

NEW JERSEY.

ACCUSES HIS DAUGHTER.

Mr. Ceehe Says She Opened a Letter Containing Money.

Refuses to Go Bail for Her and She Is Sent to Jail.

Ann E. Ceehe, twenty-five years old, was held by United States Commissioner Isaac Romaine, in Jersey City, today on a charge of having taken from the West Hoboken post-office a letter containing money addressed to her father, Louis Ceehe, with whom she lives.

He refused to give bail for her, and she is in the Hudson County Jail with the prospect of going there until she has a further examination next Monday. Ceehe is elderly, has property and lives on the Patterson bank road in West Hoboken.

The letter contained $10, a payment of interest on an investment in Germany. Miss Ceehe said her father had given her authority to get the letter as she had done before, and that he was drunk when he made the complaint to the post-office authorities. Ceehe contradicted her.

Ann E. said, had made use of the money and would arrive on the train at New York. Her father was, however, notwithstanding her tears, and gave no attention to her story. She said she had taken the letter from the post-office at 10 o'clock, and had taken it to her father's room.

GOV. JONES MEANS BUSINESS.

HE WAS A DESPERATE MAN.

Says the Nine Convicted Choctaws Will Be Shot.

They Are Guilty and a New Trial Won't Save Them.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 13.—A correspondent of the Kansas City Times went to the home of Gov. Jones, of the Choctaw Nation, twenty miles from Caddo, and interviewed the Governor as to his purpose regarding the execution of the sentence upon the nine Choctaws who were convicted of political murders and sentenced to hang.

The Governor said the prisoners were now enjoying a respite granted by the trial judge to permit of his hearing arguments in a new trial. If the judge declined to grant a new trial, the prisoners would be shot according to the sentence.

If they were granted a new trial they would be found guilty. So they would be shot anyway. The Governor was asked what course he would pursue in the execution of the sentence. The Governor replied:

"As the Chief Executive, I will call out every member of the militia and the Sheriffs and light horsemen in the State to see that the law is executed. You can say that they will be executed, as I am going to see that they are. When one refuses to do it I shall at once turn him out of office and put a man in who will do it."
